Revised Planting List

Van Wert, Ohio, October 25, 1921

As a Peony Grower, I dislike very much to be compelled to write any of my customers telling them that I cannot accept their orders on any particular variety because my stock of it has been sold out. I am sure also that Peony enthusiasts do not like to receive letters telling them that varieties they have ordered, cannot be furnished until next season. And so I am issuing this list which shows the varieties on which I can still accept orders for immediate shipment.

The prices here given are for divisions which I call ONE EYE DIVISIONS which apparently are very popular, for I receive repeat orders from a majority of my customers. These divisions can be sent by insured parcels post, if you will remit twenty cents extra on each division. If you order three or more of them I feel sure it will cost you less to have them sent by express.

Japanese Peonies

I have nearly a hundred varieties of Japanese Peonies and I intend to make a special study of them next June. I can furnish one eye divisions of the following:

ALMA (Shaylor).....	$ 2.00
AKALU (?).....	1.00
HO-GIOKU (?).....	1.00
KAMENO KEROGOMA (?).....	2.00
KINO KIMO (?).....	2.00

O-FUGI (?).....	2.00
OSHIO-KUN (?).....	1.00
RARE BROCADE (?).....	1.50
SEIRIU SOMAE (?).....	1.50
SNOW WHEEL (?).....	1.00
TAGO NO TSUKI (?).....	1.00
TORPILLEUR (?).....	1.00
YESSO (?).....	1.00

In planting your Peonies be careful not to get the eyes covered with more than two inches of soil. If you could cover the eyes to a depth of only one inch and be sure that the soil would not be washed away, your plants would give better results next spring than if covered deeper. More Peonies are ruined by too deep planting than from any cause. I expect to continue planting until the ground freezes so hard that no planting can be done. I made some successful plantings in February last season and I believe that even March planting of Peonies may succeed in this latitude, but I have had bad results with April and May planting.

Iris.

I can furnish all the Irises shown on my list of October 4, except Alcazar in the Anna Farr Collection. I will furnish the Anna Farr Collection without Alcazar for $3.50, or I will include two roots of Anna Farr and omit Alcazar for $4.00.
